"A MISS IN THE DARK"
No. 6 of "THE GO-GETTERS"

Sylvester opens his new barber shop, with Peggy as the champion cuticle cutter. Her manicuring draws plenty of trade, and leads Ted Adams and Harold Van Cleve to stage a hot footrace for the honor of the first place in the chair. Arriving all out of breath, they find a Russian dance director in the place, and getting over nicely with Peggy! The Russian's companion, a girl who is going to perform at a Charity affair at the Yacht Club, is incapacitated and he persuades Peggy to go on and do the dance---much against Ted's wishes and greatly to Sylvester's chagrin. A wealthy dowager lends Peggy her valuable pearls for the occasion. On the night of the dance the Russian turns the full force of powerful electric lights in the faces of the audience, and tries to kidnap Peggy to get the jewels. But she eludes him and Ted, who has suspected the scheme, is at the dock in his swift motorboat. He and Sylvester take Peggy aboard, and the Russian with his men leap into another boat.

A thrilling motorboat race in the dark follows. Ted, taking a desperate chance, cuts across the bow of a fast onrushing liner, and just makes it. The others are forced to slow down to avoid hitting the ship, and Peggy escapes. The jewels are safely returned, and Ted and Peggy, who have been estranged over the dancing act, make up again.
